>With progressive ideas,,,,Due to their innate ability to create and focus, they can attain affluence and wealth. As a Court Card, they can be intolerant of the limitations of others. Supported by the King of Clubs in Jupiter, they are often desirous of a leadership position, demanding respect for their ideas and expecting the freedom in which to express them. If they truly step into their kingly responsibilities, they will acquire the leadership position they deserve. Rarely hesitating to defend their ideas and ideals, the Jack of Clubs person will definitely stand their ground in confrontations.

Matthew 7:
>7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come >9 And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

No Star of David reference exists in the Bible or Talmud.
Instead, there is the Star of Remphan.
Amos 5:26-27 KJV
>26 But ye have borne the tabernacle of your Moloch and Chiun your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves.
>27 Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus, saith the Lord, whose name is The God of hosts.

>Why do you think Trump is revamping the trade deals, using tariffs, cutting taxes to bring back jobs and manufacturing into the country, stimulating the economy, and nominating gold advocates to the federal reserve board? He's attempting to mitigate the inevitable crash and failure of the fiat system. He is preparing to flip from oil to metals, and restructure the federal reserve and fold it into the gov't where it belongs according the Constitution. It will probably happen in his second term.

>Did you see who's portrait Trump chose to have hanging right behind him in the oval office? Andrew Jackson, the man who repealed the Fed's predecessor, the Second Bank of the United States.

adrenochrome running dry
it's what the elite used as a drug the way they got it was through torturing children before ritually killing them this was done to produce blackmail on people who wished to seek power once trump got into office the supply lines for these began to be cut off they had to find a source of it or face withdrawals when you're rich and powerful you don't just ween off you find a new source the new source happened to come from wuhan which happened to be the lab funded by soros and bill gates which also happened to be where corona virus broke out

https://archive.is/EXo19

it's a ritual
it's to get blackmail
it's to find those who are willing to do unsung acts in order to gain power this allows them to operate behind the scenes without ever putting themselves in the public eye

The question is how much more dangerous is it than other virus epidemics we've seen over the years? How many of the reported cases and deaths are false positives from faulty test kits?
And it's already been reported that there's 2 strains and that it's mutating rapidly. Some here think there's a mild public strain that infects the general public, intentionally released by deepstate to put everyone into panic, and maybe the second strain was released to counter that and target adrenochrome users only?
There's certainly something going around, but how much of the pandemic is really a result of the virus, and how much of this crisis is a cover for other operations?
The hospitals being overwhelmed makes sense if every person who gets sick and shows some of the very generic symptoms (fever, cough, potential breathing issues) are all rushing to the hospital at the same time seeking treatment due to the panic.

newfag here, been hearing bits and pieces of q for years now. just dove down the rabbit hole a few days ago since i have nothing else to do. i really want to believe this and if its real what does that mean for the rest of the world? also what does prince Harry and Meghan distancing themselves from the royals a few months ago have to do with everything? if anything at all?
keep up the good fight.

I think that the cards that Ellen draw were all bullshit, just a way to make David draw some cards with actual meaning behind them. It seems like Ellen is asking if he is "4 of hearts", or, by definition, if he is depressed/bitter/mad.

David answers showing a King as example for his trick. The king is david, is his profile picture, that's damn obvious. After that he pulls the 4 of hearts, answering her previous question. After that he pulls the Ace, of a bunny as some anons said before, and said that the "Ace" is also "4 of hearts".

ADRENOCHROME INFODUMP ID:7UoSMjlW Thu 19 Mar 2020 23:28:58 No.249132804 Report

Adrenochrome is rather unstable as a pure compound, pic related, and the blood of tortured kids (or animals like the chinks do) contain not just adrenochrome but a cocktail of related substances.

That is why the rural Chinese to this day ask their butcher if the meat they buy, if the animal has "suffered good". Although the taste goes bad from the release of adrenal hormone compounds, it gives you a rush and they believe it makes you more manly and more sexually proficient.

Now that is just an animal, imagine the sheer terror a child goes through when tortured, hence the corresponding release of adrenaline and related compounds.

Drinking blood is referred to in the bible, God strictly forbidding it, just like sacrificing your children to the fire of Moloch, this is what was meant. Also blood of children contains rejuvinating compounds hence vampire facials and child blood transfusions of the elites. The blood of the young is a fountain of youth.

adrenochrome and the adrenaline type compounds are the psychoactive ingredients, the ones that give you the high but there are other ingredients in there that are not psychoactive, but rejuvinating and keep you young

Remember in Twin Peaks the demons drinking GARMONBOZIA? Russian pronounciation of "hormone booze", meaning blood enriched with adrenalin type hormones, the blood of tortured animals or children

>The term "garmonbozia" was synonymous with "pain and sorrow." It was a source of sustenance for certain spirits.

Again, the Chinese do this up to this day. In rural China, they will ask a butcher if an animal has suffered enough, the Chinese prefer torturing animals before eating them. The meat may not taste as good, but they do it for the effects. They say it gives them strength, increased sexual prowess and make them more manly.

So again, if meat from a tortured animal does this, what do you think a tortured child will be like?

>In Chinese medicine «old ways» people (mostly male) believe animal has to feel pain and fear to make meat «strong». They believe it boosts testosterone and adrenaline and make man more sexy and strong. Old people ask butcher if animal had «good suffer.»

Also reminder that free adrenochrome (and the other adrenalin oxidation product adrenolutin) is psychoactive, but also very unstable. While commercially it is usually sold as the addition product "adrenochrome semicarbazone", which is much more stable and can be stored for a long amount of time.

However, the addition product is not psychoactive, as the chemical bond between adrenochrome and semicarbazide adduct is so strong it doesn't get split in the body, hence no free adrenochrome is generated in the body. This is why there are some conflicting results on the internet, while the early academic literature that did animal and human tests with adrenochrome all confirmed it was psychoactive. Pic related.

Adrenochrome must have some rejuvinating qualities too as it must have been something like this the masons were after, as the first paper ever published on the physiological activity of adrenochrome in the 1950s was presented before the Dementia Praecox Committee of the Scottish Rite masons in New York.

Dementia praecox = early onset dementia. One wonders why the freemasons were preoccpied with the "anti-aging" qualities of this drug back when little to no information was publicly available on it. Pic related is proofs.

I don't like people who parade as if they know the question inside out when all they've done is randomly stumble upon old threads with little actual significance. You obviously don't know shit about Q, you look more like a newfag trying to glow.
People who actually studied the question don't bother with a crusade to out the LARP, it's not what it's about. Better go back to threads of your caliber and update us on the Arab chimpouts we must start seeing in the suburbs, that will be more useful. Thanks.

Your picture shows forethought by the CDC... the virus broke out in November, so that would make sense they hired people to mitigate it when it inevitably came here. They aren't stupid, they knew the potential was there, not a conspiracy.
